FALL 2018 SEMINAR SERIES

2-4 p.m. Fridays
Talks from 2-3 p.m. in Donald Bren Hall, Room 6011.
Social Hour in the 5th floor lobby from 3-4 p.m.

October 5
ANDRÉ VAN DER HOEK
Professor and Chair, Department of Informatics, UC Irvine
“State of the Department”

October 12
E-SPORTS EXPERTS PANEL
“The State of Esports Research in Higher Education”

October 19
ANDY PHELPS
Professor, Art and Design, Rochester School of Technology
“A MAGIcal Approach to Games Education: Multi-Disciplinary Constructionism in Context”

October 26
LILLY IRANI
Assistant Professor, Communications & Science Studies, UC San Diego
“Entrepreneurial Citizenship: Promising Knowledge and the Subsumption of Hope”

November 2
HAO-CHUAN WANG
Acting Associate Professor, Computer Science, UC Davis
“Augmenting Collaborations with Social Computing Interaction Designs of Communication Channels”

November 9
JEREMY EPSTEIN
Deputy Division Director of CISE/CNS, National Science Foundation
“Technical Perspectives on Election 2018”

November 16
MARIAN PETRE
Professor of Computing, Centre for Research in Computing, Open University
“Balancing Cognitive Bias in Software Development”

November 30
DAN COSLEY
Associate Professor, Information Science, Cornell University; Program Officer, National Science Foundation
“Designing Systems in which AI Respects and Supports Human Agency”

December 7
TAO XIE
Professor and Willett Faculty Scholar, Department of Computer Science, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
“Intelligent Software Engineering: Synergy between AI and Software Engineering”

ISR Distinguished Lecturer Series